The students should be able to have quiz before exam

The teachers should be able to help the student to understand the questions in quiz

The manager should be able to monitor the overall performance of students and teacher activity

the system
must allow students
with low degrees
to take quiz

the system
must allow teachers
with good information
to help students

the system
must allow

managers to select the good teachers the system shall have a user response time of less than 2 seconds the system shall have a maximum of 2 help frames.